Cross-corpus harmonization after Round 3 (2026-10-23; the lead, by the user's delegation)

▼ Contents

A. Changes (apply these) 2
B. Kept, with the reason (record, no change) 7

Principle (as in the 2026-10-21 pass, guidelines §6.7): one Hebrew per source word across the corpora; the majority / earliest corpus wins unless the cognate rule (§6.4.2) or a recorded reason decides otherwise. Sumerian loan-equivalents take their own precedents where the corpora already agree (guidelines §5.2, line on amar).
Survey tool: `tools/harmonize_survey.py` (src / heb / parse / words).

Applied 2026-10-23 in batch A (laws, creation 4–7, Enmerkar, GEN, Šuruppag, the flood references, the love lyrics): see history.md. Notes from batch A: row 4 also changed the MA laws' formula ina ḫaṭṭāte (במקלות) in 13 more lines;
row 5 also Enmerkar 594 (barag); row 18 in the love lyric kept its comparative (ומדאבון – אינה יתרה עליי); row 6 leaves Sum. aga and men both כתר (kept: the other corpora already have both crowns as כתר).

For every change: the > line; the parse bullet's ("…") for that word; any note or parallels-index row that quotes our rendering (never a backticked Bible quotation); the corpus renderings.md row, plus one line "2026-10-23 harmonization" listing the changed lines; regenerate translation*.rtl.md with the corpus builder; the parallels index (by its builder) if a row changed; then the corpus verifier --strict and check_bible_quotes.py. If a verifier enforces the old word (a formula, a gate), change the verifier. Any line where the change would break the sense: skip it, and report.

B. Kept, with the reason (record, no change)

- šētu and sapāru both רֶשֶׁת (two words for "net", never in one text; Enūma eliš's Marduk net keeps רשת for Ezek 32:3 וּפָרַשְׂתִּי עָלֶיךָ אֶת רִשְׁתִּי, the net over the tannin); Sum. sa-par₄ keeps מִכְמוֹרֶת (its own precedent in three Sumerian texts; the dragnet, Isa 19:8); Gilgameš's šēšu מכמורת (rare; unsure).
- šuškallu = שְׁבָכָה – already one word.
- qiāšu and šarāku both הֶעֱנִיק (two verbs for "bestow"); LH's šarāku מסר (handing over property, by sense) and Enūma eliš's מנחיל (allotting fields, by sense) stay.
- gišši̇u צַד (SAA 9: Isa 60:4, 66:12 עַל צַד תִּנָּשֵׂאוּ) beside Etana's idu צד; ḫangāru and Sum. ĝiri₂ both פִּגְיוֹן; ḫabūnu and utlu both חֹצֶן – synonyms in different texts.
- gamāru: the prophecy corpus's כלה (the trap גֹּמֶר = Gimir, §6.7) against גמר elsewhere – by trap.
- markasu: Maqlû מוסרה (beside ṭurru חבל), Atra-ḫasīs חבל (the mooring rope), Enūma eliš / Etana רכס (the cosmic bond) – by sense.
- šēdu שֵׁדוּ in hostile-demon lists / רוּחַ־מָגֵן; pašāru פָּשַׁר / הִתִּיר – by sense (as logged).
- Sum. amar גוזל / Akk. atmu אפרוח – by source word (§5.2).
- Sum. dab₅: אחז "hold" / תפס "seize, catch" – by sense, across the Sumerian corpora; tug₂ שְׂמָלָה in the GEN lines that Gilg. XII renders word for word (copying XII's Hebrew, §5.2), בגד elsewhere.
- kalam המולדת in GEN: in the netherworld corpus הָאָרֶץ is reserved for kur = erṣetu (the netherworld), so the Land is kept apart – by corpus reservation.
- ebbu צַח / ellu טָהוֹר – two words.
- kapāru (tears) מָחָה (Isa 25:8 דִּמְעָה ... וּמָחָה) beside EST's pašāṭu (6.7§) מחה – kept; kapāru is also the cognate of כֹּפֶר: the note says so.
- Sum. pu₂: באר (well) / בריכה (pond) – by sense; ri, ki-šar₂, bulug, en₃-tukum-še₃ (S&W 302 "as long as"),
  dam tuku – by sense.
- šērtu אַשְׁמָה / עֹנֶשׁ – the word means both "sin" and "punishment": by sense.

- Erra = אֶרֶה (Gilg. XI 195, the flood, Advice to a Prince agree; add to the §6.5 name table).
- šipru: settled by the user, 2026-10-23: מְלָאכָה everywhere – Enūma eliš V 63, 141, VI 37, 57, 67 (מְלָאכָה → פֹּעַל) and the flood references 131, 149 (מלאכה → מעשה) changed; [equivalent] Gen 2:2–3.

Batch B (2026-10-23): applied in the creation corpus (EE, creation 2, EWO), Etana, Gilgameš, the wisdom corpus, Maqlû, the netherworld, Atra-ḫasīs, the prophecies and EST; it also changed the lines that carry the same word beyond the table (Gilgameš I 113, 126, 140, 153, 161, 169, 174; Maqlû II 225, VII 125; the MB Atra-ḫasīs copies G 31a, G 35e, G 40, G 49g). Kept overlaps: Ludlul's mašqû מַשְׁקֶה beside mašqītu משקה (one root); מְצוֹדָה for ḫuḫāru (Maqlû, the Šamaš Hymn 94) and EST's tubāqu. Row 19 was revised after batch B (batch C).

Batch C (2026-10-23): row 19 (bâʾu = צעד) in the flood corpus (project 4 U r. 11′, 19′; also Atra-ḫasīs III iii 12 and Gilg. XI 106, 111, whose parses write the lemma without italics), Etana (III.b+3, b+5, b+40, b+42), Gilgameš SB VI 19 (יצעד לפני, "outpace"), Ludlul I 80, IV c+16, the Theodicy 291, Maqlû VII 13 (אל יצעדו אליי בפתח; IV 151 back to אשטוף), the love lyrics LAOS 4 16 r.iii.22 (the lead); lightning "flashing by" (LAOS 4 01 o.i.10, 12) by sense חלף.
Row 24 in the Theodicy 245. Kept overlaps: צעד also for akāšu "walk" (Etana, OB Gilgameš, the Theodicy, the love lyrics) and תעלה also for atappu (the Theodicy 138, Maqlû) – synonyms, by sense.
