[o i 1] (He:) Yell! Do not bother to reply! | Not so much talking!
[o i 3] My decision is made, | I will not change for you a word, anything I said.
[o i 6] He who lies on his back for a woman is a weevil from the city wall.
[o i 8] If he is not serious he is no match for a man.
[o i 9] (She:) May my righteousness appear before Ištar the queen!
[o i 11] May my love prevail, may my slanderer come to shame!
[o i 13] At Nanāya's command I have always (taken upon me) to adore you, to charm you, to take care of (my) baby!
[o i 16] Where is my match?! | (He:) I remember more than you your tricks of the past.
[o i 19] Give up! Go away! Report to your counselor that we are (now) awake!
[o i 22] (She:) I will catch you, and this very day I shall reconcile your love with mine.
[o i 24] I keep on praying to Nanāya;
[o i 25] (So that) I shall accept your peace, my lord, forever, as a gift.
[o i 27] (He:) I shall lay siege upon you, | I shall gather my clouds on you.
[o i 29] May your supporter take away your seductiveness, put an end to your complaint!
[o i 31] Accept the truth! | ...
[o ii 1] (He:) [...] she/he was aw[ake(?)] | and does not exist.
[o ii 3] Nothing is in my heart ... will be paid out to her.
[o ii 5] I yearn for my [lo]ve.
[o ii 6] (She:) May queen Ištar [pour] confusion over the one who loves you not!
[o ii 8] May she, like me, [be afflicted] with sleeplessness!
[o ii 9] May she be dazed and [restless] all night long!
[o ii 10] (He:) I despise the girl who does not wo[rship (me)].
[o ii 11] I do not desire for the girl who does not [fawn].
[o ii 12] I shall not give her [my love-charm]. | Talking in order to dis[agree]
[o ii 14] Why [does it exist?] | I shall stop [her/my] slanderers,
[o ii 16] I shall not hear what [...]
[o ii 17] To the m[idst of darkness] I have thrown away my love:

[o ii 19] Why do you keep bothering [me]? | (She:) My (ominous) signs trouble me:
[o ii 21] My upper lip becomes moist, | While my lower lip trembles!
[o ii 23] I shall embrace him, I shall kiss him, | I shall gaze at [him],
[o ii 25] I shall achieve my victory [...] over [my slanderers],
[o ii 27] And to my lover [I shall] gracefully [...] | When our sleep [...]
[o ii 29] We shall achieve [victory] | ...
[r iii 1] (She:) ... | In [...] | [My(?)] gazelle [...] | I run but I cannot [reach him],
[r iii 5] She gave him to Ištar as a gift.
[r iii 6] (He:) As for those (women) who keep telling you:
[r iii 7] "Y[ou] are not the only one!"
[r iii 8] Stop! I have taken my love away, and will not [return (it)].
[r iii 9] I have removed [it] from your body,
[r iii 10] I have taken my charms thousands of miles away.
[r iii 11] (She:) I seek [your] pleasures, | My lord, I yearn for [your] love.
[r iii 13] Because in your delights [...] | Let them be veiled, would they never [...]
[r iii 15] I shall talk [to you] day and night. | (He:) Let me repeat it twice and thrice;
[r iii 17] I swear not to say anything kind to you (lit. satisfy my mouth with kindness),
[r iii 18] Take your place by the window orifice: | Come on, catch my love!
[r iii 20] (She:) My eyes are very tired, | I am sleepless from gazing at him,
[r iii 22] It seems that he walked across my street?
[r iii 23] The day has gone by, where is [my darling (or: my lord)]?
[r iv 1] (She:) To catch him [...] | The one [...] | What [...]
[r iv 4] Come on, let me hold [his] k[nees],
[r iv 5] I shall sit and wait maby he is on his way to me!
[r iv 6] (He:) I have sworn to you by Nanāya and Hammurāpi the king;
[r iv 7] Indeed, I am telling to you the truth;
[r iv 8] Your love is nothing more to me than agony and grief.
[r iv 10] (She:) They(f.) ... because I trust my loved one.
[r iv 11] My slanderers outnumber the stars of heaven.
[r iv 13] May they hide! May they be scarce!
[r iv 14] May they hide themselves forever right now!
[r iv 15] And as for me, I sat down, listening to the words of my lord.
[r iv 17] (He:) My one, not ugly are your features – (they are) as before,
[r iv 19] (When) I stood by you, | And you leaned your sh[oulders] (against me).
[r iv 21] [Mag]irtum ("Favorable") is your name, | "Wise la[dy]" – your title.
[r iv 23] The other woman is indeed our misfortune, | By Ištar! | [...Nice]ly you reply.
