Source: https://seal.huji.ac.il/node/1520 (SEAL – Sources of Early Akkadian Literature, ed. M. P. Streck & N. Wasserman). Retrieved 2026-10-16. Clean extraction of `_raw/node-1520.html`.

Conventions: line numbers exactly as in SEAL (manuscript siglum + column + line; primes = line count from first preserved line). `…` = determinatives/superscript signs; subscript digits in sigla rendered as Unicode (C_0). Italics (Akkadian vs. Sumerogram distinction) are NOT preserved here – see the raw HTML. Under each line, `lemmas:` lists SEAL's lemmatisation (lemma + gloss) for that line.

Ark 1 “Wall, wall! Reed fence, reed fence!

Ark 2–3 Atra-ḫasīs, pay attention to my advice, so that you live forever!

Ark 4–5 Depart from (your) house, build a boat! Spurn property [and] keep (your) life intact!

Ark 6–7 The boat which you will build, I will draw it out (for you) – a circular plan:

Ark 8–9 Her length and breadth should be equal, her base should be one ikû; her hull (lit. walls) should be one nindanu (high).

Ark 10 [Let] the cords – each ašlu long – be woven [inside(?)] it.

Ark 11–12 Should you say: '(But) this will consume 14,430 (qû of fiber)!' – Let my temple (personnel) twist the fibers into a rope for you".

Ark 13–14 I put up thirty ribs which are one parsiktu-vessel thick, ten nindanu long.

Ark 15–16 I have installed 3,600 stanchions in it which are half (a parsiktu-vessel) thick, half a nindanu long.

Ark 17 I arranged her cabins above and below.

Ark 18–19 I allocated sixty (kors) of crude bitumen for her outsides, I allocated sixty (kors) of crude bitumen for her interior.

Ark 20 I have poured sixty (kors) of crude bitumen onto her cabins.

Ark 21–22 I loaded my kilns with 28,800 (qû) of dry bitumen, I poured (additional) 3,600 (qû) of crude bitumen within –

Ark 23–24 (yet) the bitumen did not reach (the required amount), (so) I set out 300 (qû) of lard.

Ark 25–26 I loaded [my] kilns evenly with tamarisk wood(?) and . . . a wood of (?).

Ark 27 ... ...

Ark 31 [...] my [kilns(?)] ... dry(?) bitumen ...

Rev.

Ark 32–33 [I applied(?)] on the outside the dry bitumen [from the k]ilns, apart from the 120 kors which the workmen had cached.

Ark 34–35 Ordering [them] to go joyfully, (my) kith and kin [entered into] the boat . . .;

Ark 36–37 Happy . . . [. . .] . . . of my in-laws and the bearer(s) of [. . .] and the pregnant (women).

Ark 38 The one (who wanted) to eat was eating; [the one (who wanted) to drink] was drinking,

Ark 39–40 I, however, there was a (heavy) thought in my heart, and I have … the praises(?). . . [. . .] (my?) heart.

Ark 41–42 My li[p]s(?), the creation(?) . . . [. . .] of my eyes,

Ark 43 and I slaughter[ed (animals)] . . . of my lips.

Ark 44–45 [I was] greatly [worried as] the plan(?) was […]; I lied down. I went up on the roof and [prayed(?)] to Sîn, my lord:

Ark 46 “Remove(?) the… of my heart!”

Ark 47–48 . . . . . darkness(?) into my he[art].

Ark 49–40 Enlil, from [his thr]one, [took an oath (?)] regarding the annihilation and de[solation(?) on the] dimming [day].

Ark 51–52 And so, wild anima[ls from the s]teppe [(. . .)], two by two, [I] did [make enter] into the boat . . . [. . .].

Ark 53–54 I had . . . five (measures) of beer . . . [. . .]. They were transporting eleven or twelve [. . .].

Ark 55–56 Three (measures) of šiqbum-plant . . [. . .], one-third (measure) of fodder, . . . and kurdinnu-plant(?),

Ark 57–58 sixty (qû) of lard for the germadû-poles for the slipway – I meticulously commanded (to bring), apart from the thirty kors which the workmen had put aside.

Ark 59–60 When I have entered the boat, (I ordered:) “Caulk the frame of her door!”
