Compston 1919 – The Inscription on the Stele of Méša‘

- What: H. F. B. Compston, The Inscription on the Stele of Méša‘, commonly called the Moabite Stone: The Text in Moabite and Hebrew, with Translation (London: SPCK, 1919). Public domain (author d. 1931; Wikisource marks it PD/US).
- URL: https://en.wikisource.org/wiki/The_Inscription_on_the_Stele_of_M%C3%A9%C5%A1a%CA%BF (pages: `Page:The_Inscription_on_the_Stele_of_Méša_commonly_called_the_Moabite_Stone.djvu/11`–`13`, read with `action=raw`). Retrieved 2026-10-31.
- In this folder: `mesha.tsv` – the square-script text, one row per stone line (1–34), in our conventions (header of the file; `../../מילים-באבן/renderings.md` §1). Committed (PD).
- Fixes against the Wikisource page: bracket slips at lines 6–7, 10–11, 12, 16–17, 19, 28 (`[...]` for the lost start), 33 (Compston's translation decides); `??` → `[..]` (line 1, the lost end of Kemosh-[yt]); `הר הד` → (line 1); `ב]מת` → `ב]נס` (line 3); `מהדבא` → `מהבא` (line 8; Compston's translation: Mehēd^{e}bā).
- Use: BASE TEXT of `מילים-באבן/1-מצבת-מישע/`. Old (pre-RTI) readings: the apparatus notes the modern ones.
