[o 1] Daughter of an exile – my heart rejoiced; (she) took away the laugh of (my) mother.
[o 4] My mood plunged into the infesting heart –
[o 6] her lovemaking is an infesting love. | She is sweet as honey,
[o 8] She is fresh like wine to the nose.
[o 10] (My) mood is (fixed on her) fruits. | As life, mentioning her name is insatiable,
[o 13] Though she is distant, her merriment sets in motion.
[o 14] 14 [One who has] a loved-one chases (lit. sees) a dream:
[o 15] my heart [is broken], my mood is agitated!
[o 16] [Had] Ištar schemed this affair, lovers could not [ever] be seen!
[o 18] My he[art] rejoiced! My mood became cheerful!
[o 19] ... is the truth. Restless and constantly trembling:
[o 20] I (Text: he) awoke to the noise of swallows, writhed in (my) bedroom on the bed:
[r 22] The lov[e-charm] returned into m[y hear]t!
