[o ii 16'] Fear not, Esarhaddon! I am Bel. (Even as) I speak to you, I watch over the beams of your heart.

[o ii 20'] When your mother gave birth to you, sixty great gods stood with me and protected you. Sin was at your right side, Šamaš at your left; sixty great gods were standing around you and girded your loins.

[o ii 27'] Do not trust in man. Lift up your eyes, look to me! I am Ištar of Arbela; I reconciled Aššur with you. When you were small, I took you to me. Do not fear; praise me!

[o ii 34'] What enemy has attacked you while I remained silent? The future shall be like the past. I am Nabû, lord of the stylus. Praise me!

(ruling)

[o ii 40'] By the mouth of the woman Bayâ, 'son'(!) of Arbela.

(ruling)

((Break))

[o iii 2'] I will [.....] | you shall [.....]. | I am Mu[llissu (...)].

(ruling)

[o iii 5'] By the mouth of the woman Ilussa-am[ur] of the Inner City.

(ruling)

[o iii 7'] I am Ištar of [Arbela].

[o iii 8'] Esarhaddon, king of A[ssyria]! In the Inner City, Nineveh, Calah and Arbela I will give long days and everlasting years to Esarhaddon, my king.

[o iii 15'] I am your great midwife, I am your excellent wet nurse. For long days and everlasting years I have established your throne under the great heavens.

[o iii 23'] I watch in a golden chamber in the midst of the heavens; I let the lamp of amber shine before Esarhaddon, king of Assyria, and I watch him like the crown of my head.

[o iii 30'] Have no fear, my king! I have spoken to you, I have not lied to you; I have given you faith, I will not let you come to shame. I will take you safely across the River.

[o iv 5] Esarhaddon, rightful heir, son of Mullissu! With an angry dagger in my hand I will finish off your enemies.

[o iv 11] O Esarhaddon, king of Assyria, cup filled with lye, axe of two shekels!

[o iv 14] Esarhaddon! I will give you long days and everlasting years in the Inner City. O Esarhaddon, I will be your good shield in Arbela.

[o iv 20] Esarhaddon, ri[ghtful] heir, son of Mul[lissu]! I am mindful of you, I have loved you greatly.

[o iv 26] I keep you in the great heavens by your curl. I make smoke rise up on your right side, I kindle fire on your left.

[o iv 33] The kingship [is] stro[ng] on [.....]

((Break))

[o v 1] [.....] shall not receive [...] from him. I will cut the conspiring weasels and shrews to pieces before his feet.
