Source: https://seal.huji.ac.il/node/1530 (SEAL – Sources of Early Akkadian Literature, ed. M. P. Streck & N. Wasserman). Clean extraction of `node-1530--Gilg-OB-Nippur.html` by `tools/seal2md.py`. Conventions: `_..._` = italic on the site (Akkadian words); `{...}` = superscript (determinatives); a line with an empty label continues the previous one (e.g. the Akkadian of a bilingual line); `lemmas:` = SEAL's lemmatization (form = lemma "meaning").

1 “My friend, we have come close to the forest,
2 (what was foretold in) dreams is near at hand, battle is swift (upon us).
3 Do you (already) see the radiant auras of the god,
4 of Ḫuwawa, whom your mind does ever fear?
5 You will lock horns and batter him like a bull,
6 you will force his head down with your strength.
7 The old man you saw is your mighty god,
8 the one who begot you, Lugalbanda.”
9 “My friend, I have seen a fourth,
10 it surpasses my (other) three dreams!
11 I watched an Anzû-bird in the sky,
12 up it rose and soared above us back and forth like a cloud.
13 It was a terror, its face was very strange,
14 its speech was fire, its breath was death.
15 [There was a] man, strange of form,
16 [he…] and was standing there in my night (i. e., dream).
17 [He…] its wings, he took hold of my arm,
18 […] … and he cast it down [before] me.
19 […] … upon it.”

2′ It was a terror, its face was very strange,
3′ its speech was fire, its breath was death.
4′ While you fear its awesome splendour,
5′ I shall … its foot, I shall enable you to arise!
6′ The man you saw was mighty Šamaš.”
