Project 4 – the Punic sacrificial tariffs: Marseille (CIS I 165, KAI 69) and Carthage (CIS I 167, KAI 74)

- Scope: all 21 lines (Punic, 4th–3rd c. BCE; Marseille, Musée d'archéologie méditerranéenne). Key `MT`.
- Base: G. A. Cooke, A Text-Book of North-Semitic Inscriptions (Oxford 1903), no. 42, pp. 112–113 (public domain), read by us from the archive.org page images (leaves 140–141; item `textbookofnorths00cookuoft`) → `../../sources/Cooke-1903--North-Semitic-Inscriptions/marseille-tariff.tsv`. One row per stone line; numerals `{n}`.
- Rank 3–5: Cooke's (= Driver's) translation and notes (pp. 113–120, OCR read per line); English Wikipedia's transliteration (after KAI, © – consulted for line division only, not used as a base).
- Product: Hebrew translation with the transcription (guidelines §6.7: Punic is translated). Renderings and gates:
  `../renderings.md` §4.
- Open: the meaning of `צצ`, `אגנן`, `חזת`, `שצפ`, `שלבמ`, `יצלת`, `קצרת`, `צועת` (transliterated); `בדצ` (`שׂוֹנָה מֵ־`, Cooke's "other (?) than") and (`עוֹד חֲסֵרוֹת … בְּאַטוּמְטָא`) `למבמחסר באטומטא` rendered tentatively; line 1's first word (`ב]עת`, "tariff"?); `אלמ` "the gods" or "the god".
- The Carthage tariff (key `CT`, `annotated-carthage.rtl.md`): Cooke no. 43, p. 123 (PD; leaf 151), 11 lines, the right half restored by Cooke from no. 42; its Hebrew copies MT's wherever the Punic is the same. Its line 1 has the title word whole (`בעת`), which confirms Cooke's `ב]עת` in MT 1. Self-reviewed (three passes); not independently reviewed. The clean file `translation.rtl.md` combines MT and CT.
