Atraḫasis I (all periods) | Sources of Early Akkadian Literature

Source: https://seal.huji.ac.il/node/1515 (SEAL – Sources of Early Akkadian Literature, ed. M. P. Streck & N. Wasserman). Retrieved 2026-10-16. Clean extraction of `_raw/node-1515.html`.

1 When the gods were men,

2 they performed the work and carried the basket (ba: the gods fashioned the yoke, the basket).

3 The basket of the gods was big and

4 the toil was great, the trouble much.

5 The great Anunnaku

6 were forcing the seven to bear the toil, the Igigi.

7 Anu, their father, was the king,

8 (ba: And) their counsellor was the warrior Enlil.

9 Their [chai]r-bearer was Ninurta

10 [and] their officer(?) was Ennugi.

11 They held the hand(s) sideways(?).

12 They cast the lots. The gods (ba: they) divided:

13 Anu went up to (ba: to his) heaven.

14 [Enlil t]ook the earth for his subjects.

15 The bolt that keeps the sea in check

16 they gave to Enki (ba: Ea), the prince.

17 [Those of An]um had gone up to heaven.

18 [Those of the A]psû had gone down (ba: Those of Ea went down to the Apsû).

19 The Anunnaku(?), those of heaven (S+T+-NA: those of the Apsû [...]), were free of work.

19a ... and

20 Those of Enlil used to carry the work (A: [They ma]de the Igigi carry the [work]).

21 The gods(?) used to dig the river(s),

22 [the canals of the gods, the [l]i]fe of the land.

23 [The gods] used to dig [the rivers],

24 [the canals of the gods, the li]fe of the land.

25 [The gods dug the Tig]ris river

26 [and] the Euphrates thereafter.

27 [...] in the deep.

28 [...] they set up their ...

29 [...] the Apsû.

30 [... the cir]cumference(?) of the land.

31 [...] an orchard(?) within it.

32 [... they] raised the head of the mountain ranges(?),

33 [...] all the mountains.

34 The gods(?) created that of the basket (= reeds).

35 [...] the great marsh.

36 The gods created that of the basket (= reeds).

36a [For 10? years] they were carrying the basket.

36b [For 20? years] they were carrying the basket.

36c [For 30? years] they were carrying the basket.

37 [For ..]. 40 (MM-MB: 50) years, the gods carried the excessive (toil) (S+T+-NA [... year]s they carried the basket).

37a ... they surrounded the center(?).

37b ... the land(?).

38 toil day and night.

39 [They] sat, raising (their) complains,

40 [(and) gru]mbling in the excavation:

40a “The basket is killing us, hard is the work,

40b much is our distress!

41 “Come, let us confront (MM, ba, S+T+: slay) the chair-bearer,

42 that he may remove the [hea]vy toil (which is) on us!” (J-NA, S+T+-NA: [..]. let us break the yoke. MM-MB: and the heavy toil, let us break [its] yoke).

43 [The god, the co]unsellor of the gods, the warrior,

44 [co]me, let us remove from his dwelling.

45 [Enlil, the co]unsellor of the gods, the warrior,

46 [co]me, let us remove from his dwelling.”

47 Wē (MM adds: the god(!) who had understanding) made ready to speak and

48 said to the gods, his brothers:

49 “Let us beat the chair-bearer of old times,

50 Enlil will place ...

51 ... will place ...

52 ... (MM-MB: ... before us; J-NA, S+T-NA:q ... they did not sacrifice incense)

53 the hostile god.

54 ... they will [lis]ten to our plea. Come on!

55 Enlil(?) made our yoke last longer

56 and (MM: aggressively) made our heavy work harder(?)!

56a [50+x]+4 (lines)

57 The counsell[or] of the go[ds], the warrior,

58 co[me], let us remove (him) from his dwelling!

59 Enlil, the counsellor of the gods, the warrior,

60 co[me], let us remove (him) from his dwelling!

61 Now, call for war! (ba: Now, let me provo[ke(?)...]

62 Battle let us stir up, warfare!"

63 The gods heard his word.

64 They set fire to their tools.

65 Their spades,

66 their baskets –

67 they put on fire.

68 They took each other hand in hand, as they went (ba: They set off, making their way)

69 to the gate of the shrine of warrior Enlil.

70 It was night, half-way through the watch (ba: It was the watch of the night).

71 The house (ba: the Ekur) was surrounded, but the god did not know.

72 It was night, half-way through the watch (ba: It was the watch of the night).

73 The Ekur (K(+)M-NA: house) was surrounded, but Enlil did not know.

74 Kalkal waited (and) .... (ba, K(+)M-NA: noticed (it) and watched(?) ..[.])

75 He touched the bolt and examined [...].

76 Kalkal woke [Nuska].

77 All the time they listened to the clamor of [the Igigū].

78 Nuska woke [his lo]rd.

79 He got [him] out of (K(+)M-NA: his night) bed:

80 "My lord, [your] house is surrounded.

81 Battle has run right up to your gate!

82 Enlil, your house is surrounded.

83 Battle has run right up to your gate!"

84 Enlil had [wea]pons(?) sent to his dwelling.

85 Enlil made ready to speak and

86 said to the vizier Nuska:

87 “Nuska, bar your gate,

88 take your weapons and stand before me.”

89 Nuska barred his gate,

90 took his weapons and stood before Enlil.

91 Nuska made ready to speak and

92 said to the warrior Enlil:

93 “My lord, your face is (pale as) a tamarisk.

94 Your own sons, why did you fear (them)?

95 Enlil, your face is (pale as) a tamarisk.

96 Your own sons, why did you fear (them)?

97 Send that they bring Anu down [here] and

98 that they lead(?) Enki be[fore y]ou.”

99 He sent (and) they brought Anu down to him.

100 They led(?) Enki before him.

101 Anu, king of [hea]ven, was seated,

102 the king of the deep water, Enki, s[at(?) wait]ing(?).

103 The great Anu[naku] were seated,

104 Enlil arose and the case was p[resented].

105 Enlil made rea[dy to spea]k and

118 Enlil (ba, bb(?), S+T-NA: Anu) made ready [to speak and]

119 said to to the vizier Nuska:

120 "Nuska, open your gate!

121 Take your weapons (and) go out to the assembly!

122 In the assembly of all the gods (S+T-NA: the great gods)

123 bow down, stand up, (and) repeat (S+T-NA: say to them) my message:

124 Anu, your father, has sent me,

125 (ba, bb: and) your counsellor, the warrior Enlil,

126 your chair-bearer Ninurta

127 and your bailiff, the god Ennugi.

128 Who is the god (S+T-NA: the one) who leads the warfare?

129 Who is the god who leads the battle?

130 Who is the one that stirred up the war (S+T-NA: Which god is it who created [...]),

131 so that warfare came right up to Enlil's gate?"

131a Written by dictation.

132 Nuska took the report (E: [opened(?)] his gate; S+T-NA: Nuska, [upon hearing(?)] this,)

133 opened the gate, went out to the gathering. (S+T-NA: took his weapon; E: [...] w[en]t(?) ... Enlil(?))

134 In the assembly of all the gods (S+T-NA: of the great gods)

135 he bowed down, stood up and delivered (E: revealed) the message:

136 "Your father, Anu, has sent me,

137 and your counsellor, the hero Enlil,

138 your throne-bearer Ninurta

139 and your bailiff E]nnugi (S+T-NA: Annugal):

140 Who is the god who leads the warfare?

141 Who is the god leading the battle?

142 Who is the one that stirred up the war,

143 so that ba[tle has run right up to the gate of Enlil?"

144 In the a[ssembly the Igigu(?)] gods answered:

144a [... d]id

144b [...E]nlil.

144c [...] great.

145 "The labor gang rebelled (E, G, S+T-NA, e: (and) shouted).

145a [...] the gods leading the battle.

146 It was all of us who declared war.

147 We convened our assembly

148 in the excavation.

149 The basket killed us.

150 Our toil is great, the misery is too much.

151 Verily, it was all the entirety of the gods

152 whom we instigated to fight against Enlil."

153 Nuska took the report,

154 went and relayed [back(?) ...] (bb, e: returned and spoke [to] his [lord]:)

155 "My lord, where you have sent me

156 [I] set out, I stood and deliv[ered] the message (A: I we[nt ...] plenty).

157 I explained (to them) [yo]ur solemn [message] (bb, e: [Th]ey heard your solemn message).

158 All the Anunnaki (and) the labor gan[g (said):] (A: al[l ...] shouted(?):)

159 "It is all of us

160 who declared war.

161 [We] convened our assembly in the excavation.

162 The excessive basket (bb: the basket) killed us.

163 Our toil is [hea]vy, the (K(+)M-NA: our) misery is too much.

164 [Verily], all of the entirety of the gods

165 we [insti]gated to fight with Enlil."

166 He he[ard] this speech.

167 Enlil, his tears (bb: [and(?) En]lil's te[ars]) were flowing.

167a [The go]d was terrified by what he le[arne]d.

167b He spoke to his brother Anu.

168 Enlil was terrified by his speech (bb: what he le[arned]).

169 He spoke to the hero (bb, K(+)M-NA: his brother) Anu:

170 “I will go up with you, to heaven.

171 Carry the regulation, bring your force!

172 The Anunnaki are present before you:

173 Summon a god and let them implement on him the divine authority!”

174 Ea (bb, K(+)M, N: Anu) made ready to speak [and]

175 said to the gods, his brothers:

176 “What blame can we lay on them?

177 Heavy is their work, their suffering great!

178 Daily the earth [...]

179 Heavy is the oppression (bb: work) – we can hear the uproar.

180 There is work to do.

181 Present is [Mami, the birth-godd]ess (bb, K(+)M-NA, V-NA: ... Bēlet-ilī (and) the birth-goddesses) –

182 Let the birth-goddess create a primordial creature,

183 let man carry the basket of god,

184 let her create a primordial man,

185 let him bear the yoke, the work of lordship,

186 let him bear the yoke, Enlils work,

187 le[t] man carry the basket of god.”

188 They summoned and asked the goddess,

189 the midwife of the gods, wise Mami: (bb: the midwife, Bēlet-ilī, [wis]e [Mama:])

190 “It is you who is the midwife who creates mankind (bb: destin]y).

191 Create a primordial creature that he may bear the yoke!

192 [... lo]rdship (AA: yo[ke ...]).

193–195 [...]

196 Let him bear the yoke, Enlils work,

197 let man carry the basket of god."

198 Nintu (AA: Mami; bb: Mama) made ready to speak and

199 said to the great gods (bb: to the gods, her(!) brothers):

200 "It is not for me to do it! (bb: The power to do it is with me!)

201 The task is rather for Enki (bb: Ea) –

202 it is he who purifies everything.

203 Let him give me the clay so that I can do it."

204 Enki (bb, KA: Ea) made ready to speak and

205 said to the great gods (bb: the gods, his brothers):

206 "On the first, seventh and fifteenth of each month,

207 a rite of purification I will establish, a bath.

208 Let a god be slaughtered and

209 and let the gods be purified from(?) it.

210 With his flesh and blood,

211 let Nintu (bb: Bēlet-ilī) mix clay.

212 Let that god and man be mixed

213 together with clay.

214 Let us hear the drum for the rest of time. (bb: Let him appear in the rest of time, so we may hear.)

215 From the flesh of the god let a spirit come to existence.

216 May (the spirit) make itself known to the living as his (own) sign.

217 Lest he be forgotten, let a spirit come into existence. (bb: The spirit is a sign not to be forgotten.)”

218 In the assembly they answered “Yes!”,

219 the great Anuna gods,

220 the administrators of destinies.

221 On the first, seventh and fifteenth of each month,

222 a rite of purification he established, a bath.

223 Wē who has understanding (bb, e: Alla, a god(!) who has understanding,)

224 they slaughtered in their assembly (bb, e: Alla whom(?) Enlil slaughtered in front(?)),

225 with his flesh and blood

226 Nintu (bb, e: Bēlet-ilī) mixed clay.

226a [Th]at [god] and man

226a were mixed together with the clay.

227 They [heared the drum] for the rest of time. (bb, e: [For the rest of ti]me he appeared, it was heard; O: She made hear).

227a lines 55[+2(?)] (lines)

228 From the flesh of the god [a spi]rit came to existence.

229 They made it known to the living as his own sign.

230 Lest he be forgotten, a spirit [came into existence]. (bb: not to be forgotten, a spirit.)

231 After they have prepared that clay,

232 she called for the Anunnaku, the great gods (bb, O: all the Igigi).

233 The Igigi, the great gods,

234 spat on the clay.

235 Mami (bb: Mama) made ready to speak and

235a (2nd tablet of “When the gods were men” according to an old copy)

236 said to the great gods:

236a ...

236b " ... giving birth.

236c [... the creatr]ix of mankind.

237 You ordered me a [tas]k and

238 I completed (it).

239 You slaughtered a god along with his mind.

240 I threw away your heavy toil.

241 I have imposed your basket on man.

241a [...] those [d]ays ... [...]

242 You have bestowed clamor upon mankind.

242a [...] ... [...]

243 I have loosened the yoke, [established] release.

243a [You have slaughtered a god wi]th his mind."

244 They heard this speech of hers.

245 They advanced to her, released of burden, and kissed her feet, (saying:)

246 "Formerly, we used to call you Mami/a,

247 now, Bēlet-kala-ilī ('Mistress of all the gods')

248 let your name be."

249 They entered the House of Destiny –

250 the prince Ea (and) the wise Mama.

251 The midwives were gathered and 252 they trampled the [cl]ay in front of her.

253 Again and again [s]he cast the spell.

253b E[a] spoke [to ..]. Eridu(?).

254 Sitting in front of her, Ea made her cast (the spell).

254a Bēl[et-ilī ca]st the spell.

255 After she had cast her spell,

255a She spat on her clay.

256 She pinched off fourteen pieces of clay.

257 Seven pieces of clay (S+T-NA: she put) on the right,

258 seven pieces of clay she put on the left.

259 In their midst she set a brick.

260 She unsheaved the dagger of the canebrake, the cutter of the umbilical cord.

260a She summoned the wise, the knowledgable,

260b the seven and seven wombs.

260c Seven created males,

260d seven created females,

260e while the womb who creates destiny

260f was veiling them (the women), (pairing them) two by two,

281 The tenth month arrived and

282 she peeled off(?) the rods, she opened the amniotic sac.

283 Her face beaming joyfully,

284 She covered her head.

285 She performed the midwifery.

286 She girded her loins,

287 extending her blessing.

288 She drew (a circle) with flour and placed the brick (saying:)

289 “It is I who created; my hands did (it)!
