Why it matters here

Antediluvian kings with enormous reigns (Eridug: Alulim 28,800 years …), ending (l. 32) with Šuruppag: Ubara-Tutu, then l. 39–40 "Then the flood swept over. After the flood had swept over, and the kingship had descended from heaven, the kingship was in Kiš" (a-ma-ru ba-ur$_3$-ra-ta). Parallels Berossus' ten antediluvian kings (Alōros … Otiartes/Ardates → Xisouthros). ETCSL's composite does not list Ziusudra as king; he appears in some other king-list sources (e.g. W-B 62, and the Ur version of the Flood Story) — compare Berossus.

`transliteration.md` (431 composite lines) and `translation.md` are clean UTF-8 conversions of the XML (conventions at the top of each file); the `.xml` files are the authoritative source; the `--etcsl-cgi-*.html` files are the website display (Unicode, edition 2).

Line numbering

ETCSL composite line numbers (with segments/versions where the composition has them). Translation paragraphs carry the line range they cover.
