Why it matters here

Opens with 'After the flood had swept over and brought about the destruction of the countries; when mankind was made to endure, and the seed of mankind was preserved…' (l. 1–16) — a Lagaš counter-piece to the SKL; useful for the 'seed of mankind' (numun nam-lu_2-ulu_3) phrase also in the Flood Story C 23.

Files

- `b212--etcsl-bibliography.htm`
- `c.2.1.2--etcsl-cgi-transliteration.html`
- `c.2.1.2.xml`
- `t.2.1.2--etcsl-cgi-translation.html`
- `t.2.1.2.xml`
- `translation.md`
- `transliteration.md`

`transliteration.md` (155 composite lines) and `translation.md` are clean UTF-8 conversions of the XML (conventions at the top of each file); the `.xml` files are the authoritative source; the `--etcsl-cgi-*.html` files are the website display (Unicode, edition 2).

Line numbering

ETCSL composite line numbers (with segments/versions where the composition has them). Translation paragraphs carry the line range they cover.
