- `*_djvu.ocr.txt`: archive.org OCR. It is useless for the cuneiform plates and readable (Fraktur ſ→f) for the 1881 lecture.

Line numbering

This is Haupt's line numbering of XI, the basis of Jensen, Ungnad, Muss-Arnolt, Thompson and Heidel (see Heidel README for offsets against George).

Assessment

These are the first complete, accurate cuneiform copies of the epic (Thompson's preface: "very accurately copied"). They are of historical and palaeographic interest only. They were superseded by Thompson 1930 and George 2003 (whose plates include all manuscripts), and by photos (CDLI/eBL/BM). Haupt 1881 is a historical-interpretive piece.
