[o i 1] (Chorus:) [For the n]ew year, the pregnant (women) carried the ...
[o i 2] The love-charm – the expert (goddess) took its tail.
[o i 3] (She:) The vigor[ous sun] keeps overcoming me.
[o i 4] [Hear] the resound of my laughs of delight! They rise to you in supplication.
[o i 5] (She:) Are you able, my love? (Chorus:) - do not trust(f.) him!
[o i 6] (She:) You are so ecstatic! - (Chorus:) do not put(f.) your confidence in him! (He:) Would you only be my one and only! (She:) You have heard, Oh my beloved(m.), you have listened to me.
[o i 8] (She:) You have accepted my prayer, may your(m.) heart be satisfied.
[o i 9] In the assembly (of) the city, and among the people of consequence you(m.) have mentioned my good name and honored me, my lord.
[o i 12] How much more could you have exalted me?
[o i 13] I have gained so much value in my girlfriends' eye!
[o i 14] (Chorus:) Indeed, it is (in) the month of Nisan that we regularly give blessings to him, praising his appearance (since) ancient times in order to see him:
[o i 16] 'Numerous days, life for ever (it = the month of Nisan) carries joy of heart to Rīm-Sîn, our sun!'
[o i 18] (Chorus:) For the New Year, he poured wine for her, (with his) right (hand) which oozes.
[o i 20] (She:) Come to me! I want to be embraced as my heart told me. Let us practice the work of lovers all the night, let us not sleep!
[o i 22] Let the two of us clinch(?) passionately together in bed!
[o i 23] Be mingled over fruits and desires! Provide (me?) with vitality!
[o i 24] Burn your craving upon me!
[o i 25] My love is poured on you(m.) entirely. Take(m.!) as much as you desire!
[o i 26] (He:) Reach 'mine' and 'that of my love'!
[o i 27] (Chorus:) Rejoice, O queen Nanāya!
[o i 28] (She:) He has encouraged me (but) did not come
[o i 29] to his awakening.
[o i 30] ... ours.

[o i 31] [...] your [des]ires and your fruits.
[o i 32] [Pro]vide me [with vitality], [I am(?)] happy.
[o i 33] ...
[o ii 1] (She:) If I could only pray to him, to my master!
[o ii 3] (erasure over the whole line)
[o ii 4] (He?:) She kneels and prostrates (?) a lot. She will put me aside.
[o ii 5] (She:) You fought against an opponent for ...
[o ii 6] assuming (wrongly) that you could pray in my presence.
[o ii 7] (Chorus:) Indeed, her lips are relaxed; she carries (good) news. She is perfect in her competence!
[o ii 8] She looked on your(m.) features.
[o ii 9] (She:) They(m.) have escorted (me) to you(m.). Do not cut me off!
[o ii 10] ...
