Gilg. OB Harmal 1 | Sources of Early Akkadian Literature

Source: https://seal.huji.ac.il/node/1526 (SEAL – Sources of Early Akkadian Literature, ed. M. P. Streck & N. Wasserman). Clean extraction of `node-1526--Gilg-OB-Harmal1.html` by `tools/seal2md.py`. Conventions: `_..._` = italic on the site (Akkadian words); `{...}` = superscript (determinatives); a line with an empty label continues the previous one (e.g. the Akkadian of a bilingual line); `lemmas:` = SEAL's lemmatization (form = lemma "meaning").

Translation

obv.
1 “Go up on to the mountain crag and look at [...] ...”
2 “I have been robbed of the sleep of the gods!
3 My friend, I saw a dream:
how ominous it was, how ..., how confused!
4 I took hold of (some) bulls from the wild –
5 (one) was cleaving the ground with its bellowing,
the cloud of dust it made thrusted into the sky.
6 in front of it I leaned myself forward.
7 It seized ... [...] had enclosed my arms.
8 ... he pulled [me] forth [...] ... by force ...
9 My cheek ... [...] my ...,
[he gave] me water to drink from his waterskin.”
rev.
10 “My friend, the [god] to whom we are going,
11 is he not the wild bull, is he not very strange?
12 The countenance that you saw was shining Šamaš,
13 he will take our hand in adversity.
14 The one who gave you water to drink from his waterskin
15 was your god who honours you,
16 Lugalbanda.
We hall join forces and 17 do a thing unique,
a feat that does not (yet) exist in the land!”
