Project 1: the Old Babylonian love literature (LAOS 4 01–07, 10, 13–18, 20, 22–26)

Scope

All Old Babylonian (and the one Old Akkadian) Akkadian love lyrics, love dialogues and love incantations that have an open base text: the 25 OB / OAkk texts of ORACC AkkLove (= Wasserman 2016, LAOS 4) – 835 lines, many of them broken. Not included: the Middle Babylonian / Middle Assyrian love texts (LAOS 4 08, 09, 11, 12, 19, 21: outside "OB"; a later run) and the Isin incantation tablet IB 1554 (LAOS 4 27–34; no text in the ORACC export). Selection and reasons: `../corpus.md`.

Base text

ORACC AkkLove (`../../sources/ORACC/akklove--Akkadian-Love-Literature/`; CC0): Wasserman's transliteration, normalization (`norm:`) and lemmatization, and his English translation (rank 3, `...--translation.md`). LAOS 4 itself (commentary) is not owned; SEAL has the same editions (not downloaded).

Line numbering

ORACC labels (= LAOS 4), written without spaces: `o.i.12` (obverse, column i, line 12), `r.3'`, `b.e.36`, `t.e.1'`. One annotated file per text (`annotated-NN.rtl.md`; the Kiš fragments 14a–f in `annotated-14.rtl.md`, the incantations 20, 23–26 in `annotated-20-26.rtl.md`).

Translation order (priority)

10 (Nanaya and Muʾati), 15 (Rīm-Sîn), 16 + 04 (the "faithful lover" dialogue and its duplicate), 07, 06, 02, 03, 01, 13, 18, 17, 05, 14a–f, 22, 20, 23–26.

Repeated lines (fixed before drafting)

- LAOS 4 10: o.7 = o.8 and o.9 = o.10 except the address (bēlī / Muʾati): identical Hebrew except the name; o.12 ≈ o.13.
- LAOS 4 04 o.1–16 ≈ 16 o.ii.10–13 and o.i.1–8 (the man's rejection speech): the later file copies the earlier file's Hebrew where the Akkadian is identical (`kol_tools.py verify` lists the differences).

Sources consulted

Wasserman 2016 via AkkLove (rank 3); the Gilgameš corpus renderings (binding).

Open decisions

1. māru "son" as a term of endearment for the lover (07 o.9, 16 r.iii.23, 01 passim): rendered literally בני / בן (LAOS 4 03 o.4 נער by sense). Alternative: יקירי (Wasserman's "darling").
2. sukannīnu (a dove; 06 o.i.9, 17) = תּוֹר, because יוֹנָה is reserved for summatu; the identification of the species is uncertain.
3. šumšû (07) and biātu (06) "spend the night" both = לִין (two Akkadian verbs, one Hebrew verb).
4. irimmu "bead (love-charm)" = חרוז throughout (10, 15, 16, 04, 02); Wasserman "love-charm".
5. ḫabābu: חִבֵּק (caress; Gilgameš binding) but הָמָה of the heart and of water (03 r.32; renderings §3.1) – one lemma, two Hebrew verbs by sense.
6. mēlulu "play, dance" = שִׂחֵק (13 o.i.14', 14a o.6', 14e): a declared deviation from the Gilgameš corpus's מָחוֹל / חוּל, because here the verb takes an object ("play with my breasts"); צחק stays reserved for ṣiāḫu.
7. bānû "builder, creator" (14a o.11') = הַבּוֹנָה, following the creation corpus's banû = בָּנָה; Wasserman "the creator" (בורא is reserved for the Gen 1 comparison).
8. ṣabātu = תָּפַס and aḫāzu = אָחַז [cognate] (22 o.12–r.32, 01 l.e.36, 13 o.ii.6'): a deviation from the Gilgameš corpus, where ṣabātu = אָחַז; this corpus has both verbs, and the Song's אֲחַזְתִּיו (3:4) needs the true cognate. 03 o.10 and 16 o.i.5, r.iv.4 were changed to תפס at review.
9. ṣawāru "neck" = צַוָּאר [cognate] (22 r.35–36); the Gilgameš corpus gives צוואר to kišādu (not in this corpus).
10. ḫašāšu "rejoice" = שָׂשׂ (10 r.12', 20 o.9); šâlu "rejoice" = צָהַל (15 o.i.27); riāšu גָּל, ḫadû שָׂמַח.
11. karānu "vine" = גֶּפֶן where it is sown (23 o.8), יַיִן elsewhere (15 o.i.18, 02 o.9).
12. ruʾtu "spittle, sap" = רוֹק (14 ;22a o.12'), kept apart from the creation corpus's rupuštu רִיר.

Progress

Drafted by the run-7 coordinator acting as the translator (no sub-agent tool was available; see ../handoff--round2-run7.md §6), text by text in the priority order, with kol_tools.py verify and check_bible_quotes.py clean after each text:

- 2026-10-21: LAOS 4 10 (39 lines), 15 (43), 16 (110), 04 (50; the shared lines copied from 16), 07 (43), 06 (62), 02 (23), 03 (36), 01 (142), 13 (38), 18 (37), 17 (14), 05 (11), 14a–f (80), 22 (38), 20 + 23–26 (69). All 835 lines drafted.

Review passes (2026-10-21, the coordinator)

1. Fidelity and Hebrew (one read-through of every `>` line of the 25 texts against the ORACC normalization, `listing` view): fixed two glosses written inside `>` lines (`(מוכתר=)` 14a o.16', `(ישיג=)` 18 o.15; `(קשה=)` 01 o.ii.9) – moved to the notes; ḫašāšu unified (20 ,`ישישו` / `שש` o.9 had `יצהלו`, which collides with šâlu).
2. Consistency (by script): a key-lemma check (every line with one of 50 key lemmas – dādu, râmu, kuzbu, inbu, kirû, irimmu, ṭābu, aḫāzu, ṣabātu, târu, palāsu … – must carry the fixed Hebrew; the misses were all broken words, ventive "come" = `בא`, or sense-renderings recorded above); `kol_tools.py verify LOVE` (reserved strings, gates, traps, identical source lines); the aḫāzu / ṣabātu collision found and fixed (decision 8).
3. Echo control and quotations: every quotation converted to the `` `…` (Book ch:v) `` form so that `check_bible_quotes.py` sees it (17 had been written `` `…`, Book ch:v `` and were unchecked; all matched); a scan of the `>` lines for vav-consecutive and archaic forms (none); the new gate `אחז` (only aḫāzu).

Key findings (project 1)

- "To the garden you came down" (22 o.8–9, Old Akkadian, Kiš): kirîšum tūrdā … tūrdāma ana kirîm = (ו:יא) `לגן ירדתן … ירדתן אל הגן` ↔ `דּוֹדִי יָרַד לְגַנּוֹ` (שיר השירים ו:ב), `אֶל גִּנַּת אֱגוֹז יָרַדְתִּי`: the verb and the noun both [cognate / equivalent], some 1,500 years before the Song.
- The adjuration (22 r.33–38): `הִשְׁבַּעְתִּי` ↔ `משביע אני אותך … עד שצווארו וצווארך לא נצמדו – לא תרגעי!` (ב:ז; ה:ח) `אִם תָּעִירוּ … עַד שֶׁתֶּחְפָּץ … אִתְכֶם`: the same frame (I adjure you + by whom + "until"), but by Ištar and Išḫara where the Song swears "by the gazelles and the hinds of the field".
- The counsel of father and mother reversed (20 o.10–11): `אל תשבי לעצת אביך, אל תקחי את עצת אמך` against (משלי א:ח) `שְׁמַע בְּנִי מוּסַר אָבִיךָ וְאַל-תִּטֹּשׁ תּוֹרַת אִמֶּךָ`.
- "Your love-making is good": dādūka ṭābū = `דּוֹדֶיךָ טובים` (13 o.i.6'; 10 o.9) ↔ `כִּי טוֹבִים דֹּדֶיךָ מִיָּיִן` (א:ב) – the closest phrase match of the corpus; with the Kiš wasf's sissinnu = `סַנְסִנַּי` (13 o.i.11') ↔ the Song's hapax (ז:ט) `סַנְסִנָּיו` and the left hand (13 o.i.13' ↔ ג:ח; ב:ו).
- `לָכָה דוֹדִי` (15 o.i.20 alkam … i nīpuš) ↔ ז:יב; the "shepherd … where do you lie down" of tarbaṣu (07 r.39) ↔ ז:א; the twin (14b) ↔ ה:ד; the oil (šamnu) and honey (dišpu) ↔ ד:יא ;א:ג; "I called her, she did not turn to me" (26 o.5) ↔ (ה:ו) `קְרָאתִיו וְלֹא עָנָנִי`.
- The patriarchal narratives: ṣīḫtu "(erotic) laughter" = (בראשית) `יִצְחָק מְצַחֵק אֵת רִבְקָה` ↔ `צָחוֹק` (כו:ח throughout; "I saw your face – you are a god" (03 o.17–18) ↔ בראשית לג:י; amtu (03 r.21) ↔ רות ג:ט; šeriktu "dowry" = `שִׁלּוּחִים` (03 r.26, 04 o.18) ↔ בראשית לא:יד; aḫāt abiki (18 o.19) ↔ ויקרא יח:יב; qadištu (20 o.12, 26 o.7) ↔ בראשית לח:כא.
- The ancient mind: love as a force to be "seized" and "cast" (the incantations' aḫāzu, nadû); the goddess as patron of the girl; the king as the goddess's lover; jealousy, slander (karṣī akālu ↔ Aram. דניאל ג:ח) and gossip; the humour and obscenity of 18; the girl's work (dough, the baby on her hip, 26) set against desire.
